ATLAS OF SPACE

Space Atlas invites us all on a great adventure through the endless expanses of space.

First we listen to the story of our greatest life source on earth, the Sun, then to all the planets of our Solar System, one by one.

After which we travel the greatest distance possible, to the very depths of the cosmos.

Here we are greeted by nebulae, the supernova remnants of massive stars, black holes, constellations, and the zodiac belt.

Just when we think we've come to the end of our journey in space, we realize that we're only in one of the billions of galaxies in the universe...

With information that will free your mind from the constraints of gravity, this atlas contains everything you want to learn about space.

WHO IS THERE ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD?

We were all once members of a tribe. Humanity has tried to adapt to the rules of nature for thousands of years in order to survive.

Today, thousands of communities still hunt and gather, make do with what nature gives, and protect their identities. In Tanzania, the Hadzabe tribe still maintains its 10,000-year-old hunter-gatherer lifestyle. In Russia, the Nenets continue their nomadic traditions by traveling 1,500 km each year with their reindeer and sleds. Mexicans commemorate their loved ones who have left the world in South America with the "Day of the Dead Festival" every year.

"Who Is On The Other End Of The World?" An anthropology atlas is written for all curious and research-loving children and adults who have not lost their excitement to explore. This atlas provides a glimpse of different civilizations from the perspective of children's literature and enables us to meet them.

MY GRANDMA IS BACK

Everything starts with Çınar's parents complaining a lot about what he has done. However, Çınar is a curious and really "bored" child who just loves to explore. One day, his grandmother, who understands him very well and wants to help, comes unannounced. She surprises not only with her arrival but also with her appearance. She looks very interesting with her skating on her feet, a ballerina skirt, and pink hair. Plus, she's got 15 suitcases full of weird stuff and a lot of pets. The grandmother has turned into a naughty child, so to speak. All family members leave their jobs and take care of their grandmother for days. They get very tired, but everything that the grandmother wanted to tell is understood in time.

Şermin Yaşar, one of the most beloved authors of children's literature, wrote for children who think that they are not understood or misunderstood by adults. My Grandmother Is Back is an entertaining and laughing story.

THE MOST IMPORTANT STUDENT IN THE WORLD

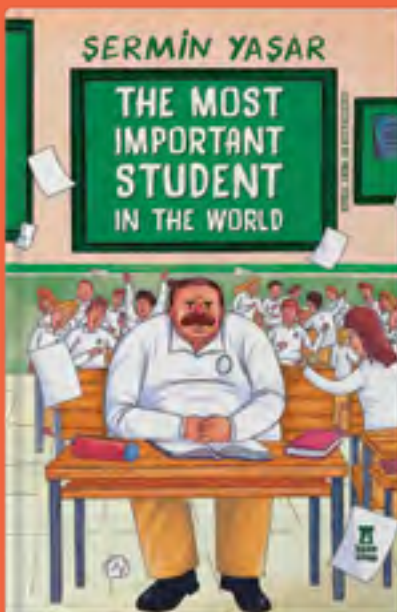

Everyone, absolutely everyone, called him Mister Fikri.

After all, he was a boss, a general manager, and the chairman of the board. One day, while merry and comfy in his own kingdom, he received a phone call that had to be a joke. He needed to go back to middle school! Apparently, there'd been a mix-up and he had never officially graduated. If he didn't complete his courses, none of his other diplomas would count. Come on, this was beyond ridiculous!

He tried everything not to go back to school. First, he attempted to solve the problem with money, but that was rejected. Then he tried to get a medical note for a stomach ache, but no one would give it to him. He even tried to skip school, but that didn't work either. In the end, he had to accept the situation.

How much can middle school change a person's life?

You'd have to ask Mister Fikri. Or rather, Fikri #119...

There is very little time left for the schools to close. For Asiye, who is looking forward to the holiday, the idea of going to the village without internet is a nightmare. She has a difficult task to fulfill in order not to go to the village, and to be able to play with her tablet at home for all summer: Getting a certificate of appreciation. If she gets that certificate, her father will let her stay at home. So, our Asiye would leave it that to chance? Of course not. After her grandmother Mad Asiye got under her skin, the magnificent trio -Neşe, Se-vilay and Asiye- plan to steal the exam questions. But the adventure doesn't end much well. The road to the village awaits Asiye, who was caught stealing the exam questions. Unimaginable surprises and strange adventures that she could not even plan await her during her unwillingly gone village vacation. The adventures of the Asiye series full of excitement, enthusiasm, fun and mischief continue in this book with... some miseries.

OCTOMOM

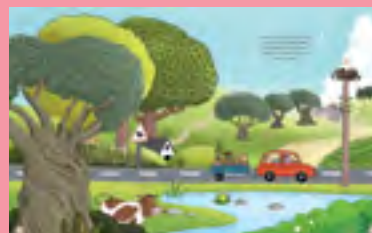

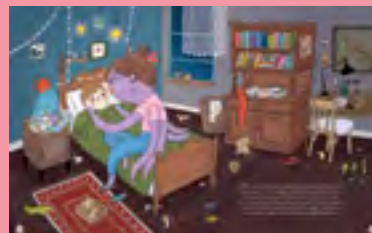

Deniz's mother took care of everything. She was cooking, talking on the phone, watering flowers, typing on the computer, cleaning, preparing lemonade and playing football with Deniz at the same time. His mother was not just a mother. She was an Octomom! Anyone watching her for a bit could easily have noticed that she has eight arms, just like an octopus. But one day Octomom and Deniz set out on a journey and everything began to change slowly. Octomom is a story with lots of surprises and cheeriness that proves the saying, "It takes a village to raise a child."

WATCH THAT BIRD

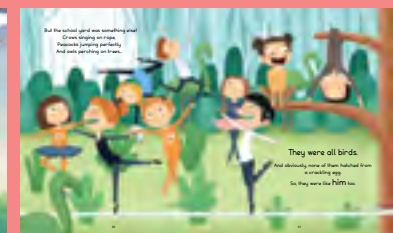

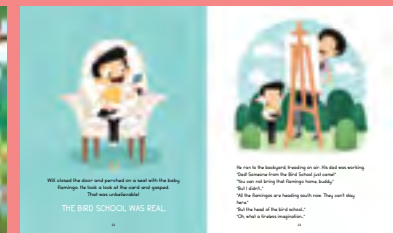

“When you truly want to be you, the whole universe cooperates for you.” Will Pintail strongly believed that he was a bird. But his parents disagreed. He could sing like a crow, jump like a peacock, and perch on a tree like an owl. Will’s parents knew almost everything about the birds, and they were passionate birdwatchers. Could Will find a way to be watched like a bird? And seen as who he was? Watch That Bird, is the inspiring story of believing in your dreams even if they look impossible. If you decided to be yourself there will be unexpected ways to follow your dreams.

SLEEPLESS KOALA

One night Ali loses his sleep. He turns right, he turns left, he turns upside down, and he tries everything but all of them are useless. Finally, he decides to count sheep. He draws a little cloud over his head to count sheep over it and starts counting. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7... 7! Sheep number 7 does not show up somehow. After a while, he greets Ali yawningly. Ali is surprised by this talking sheep but he also feels curious. The sheep tells him about the Land of Sleep Sheeps and they jump into the cloud to visit the Land of the Sleep Sheeps together. Their first stop is a sleepless koala in Australia. Sleepless Koala handles one of the most basic problems of children, sleeping issues, in an enjoyable way. It encourages children to find a cheerful way to face the boring responsibilities in daily life.

LAYLA AND MI-RO

Layla lives in the future. Except for her, all children have the latest model robots that do whatever they want. But Leyla doesn't seem to care until she sees the "Robot Dance Competition" poster at school. She gets so excited that she finds herself at the Robots Shelter for this competition the next day. Old kitchen robot "Mi-Ro" come into Layla's life and adventure begins. There is very little time left for competition and Layla has to teach Mi-Ro, which is programmed to make a strawberry cake, how to play the Turkish folk dances "halay", "horon" and "damat halayı." This book was written for children who are interested in coding language, who are fascinated by the digital world, and who will become the software developers of the future. The book emphasizes that every simple step in life can be created with coding. At the same time, it is a friendship story that put on a warm smile on readers' faces.
